

My goals

Improve the quality of life of my patients through evidence-based practice

Advance the understanding of human pain to allow the development of more effective treatments

Evaluate current treatments to inform best clinical practice

Transfer my knowledge and skills to future healthcare professionals, scientists, teachers, and leaders